

Even in the face of all the challenges that the 2020-21 school year has brought our community, some students stand out with their creativity, work ethic and commitment to learn. Our students are still doing AWESOME work!

Below are comments teachers are saying about a few students. Thanks to parents and families for your ongoing support. Together, we all make a difference!

9TH GRADE:

Kinich Balam	A new student digging in and doing great!
Gavin Delpilar	Homework in work early, consistently contributing in class.
Ruby Frederick	Greatest achieving student in IXL. A full week ahead of the semester schedule and the highest accuracy rate
Cassidy Maes	Brilliant student.
Martin Nutt	Homework in work early, consistently contributing in class and coming to office hours.
Liam Rodriguez	As a new student, coming into an unfamiliar school community and tackling everything. Doing great work
Jenna Stebbins	Honorable Mention for IXL progress.
Aaliya Trujillo	Doing really well in classes overall.
Nizhone Valdez	Attendance Award
Rayna Vigil	Honorable Mention for IXL progress. Hard-working, takes feedback really well

10TH GRADE:

Mr. AlaridPease's 10th Grade Spring Semester Art Class	Awesome work on a recent art piece.
Colbie Boyd Erich Mueller	Self-advocating, always friendly and contributing to class.
Jonathan Dunn Gray Garcia Taniya Parish	All teachers agree: Positive attitudes, engaged and bringing elements of humor and self-compassion.

11TH GRADE:

Jacob Bowden Selena Rodriguez	All teachers agree: Great work ethic and producing their best work even in a remote setting.
